Instructions:

1. Die cut the Layered Poinsettia creative die from white card stock.
2. Color the petals red, using Festive Berries and Barn Door Distress ink and an ink blending tool, and color the green leaves using Peeled Painted and Mowed Lawn distress ink. Add additional depth to the red petals using Copic markers R39 and R29. Color the center of the poinsettia with a yellow Copic marker.
3. Add scoring details to the petals and leaves with a scoring stylus then coat the red petals with a layer of Wink of Stella clear glitter brush pen.
4. Adhere the poinsettia together with a liquid adhesive.
5. Cut a panel of dark gray card stock, slightly smaller than the finished card base.
6. Die cut a Spellbinders circle die from the gray panel to create a window.
7. Using the words Christmas and Joy from the Gather Around stamp set, white heat emboss the sentiment under the window onto the gray card stock.
8. Using a scoreboard and a scoring stylus, turn the gray panel over and score diagonal lines going in two different directions onto the card panel.
9. Adhere the gray panel onto a white note card with black fun foam.
10. Adhere the poinsettia to the white note card with 3D mounting foam.
